

You should be prompted to enter your First Name Last Name and your initials.
Click Next to continue.

The screenshot shows the 'Welcome to OpenOffice.org 3.1' dialog box. On the left, a 'Steps' list includes: 1. Welcome, 2. User name (highlighted), 3. Online Update, and 4. Registration. The main area is titled 'Provide your full name and initials below' and contains the text: 'The user name will be used in the document properties, templates and when you record changes made to documents.' Below this text are three input fields: 'First name', 'Last name', and 'Initials'. At the bottom, there are four buttons: '<< Back', 'Next >>' (highlighted with a mouse cursor), 'Finish', and 'Cancel'.

It's a good idea to keep your software up-to-date to avoid virus attacks and bugs.
Click Next to continue.

The screenshot shows the 'Welcome to OpenOffice.org 3.1' dialog box. On the left, a 'Steps' list includes: 1. Welcome, 2. User name, 3. Online Update (highlighted), and 4. Registration. The main area is titled 'Online Update' and contains the text: 'OpenOffice.org searches automatically at regular intervals for new versions. In doing so online update does not transfer personal data. As soon as a new version is available, you will be notified.' Below this text is another line of text: 'You can configure this feature at Tools / Options... / OpenOffice.org / Online Update.' At the bottom of the main area is a checked checkbox labeled 'Check for updates automatically'. At the bottom of the dialog box, there are four buttons: '<< Back', 'Next >>' (highlighted with a mouse cursor), 'Finish', and 'Cancel'.